

That is literally the only good thing they can do, other than that they're worthless. Enough of that garbage.

I pray YouTube terminates the partnership program and all these lazy fags who use YouTube as their source of income need to get real jobs.

YouTube is not a job. Yes, they pay you for the views/ad clicks you get but if you get low views you get little money. NOT A JOB.

What I wouldn't give to just hand a bunch of storyboards and voice over tracks to 70-80 animators in my basement and say "here you go, now animate it." (sigh) In a perfect world. I feel like I get little to no respect for how much work goes into just one video. "Id watch it if the animation wasn't shitty" YOU ARE A SPOILED CONTRAB. DO YOU WIPE YOUR ASS WITH DIAMONDS? DO BUTTER SERVE YOU DINNER? Jump off of a 2000 ft cliff and when you die from hitting the earth tell me how you would've lived if gravity was "better". I'm all for free speech but when it's a retarded comment like that you shouldn't even be allowed in front of a TV.
