

Derek: "He actually didn't but I'll see..." Never heard back from him again or since, Sunday rolls around and Andrew tells me "me and the guys have agreed to not give out stem and backing tracks which hopefully you can respect and understand." My heart shut down...
The fucker lied to me when in reality he had it AND the vocal track THE ENTIRE TIME!
I removed him and SR members off of every social media that I owned and wrote Andrew a 2-3 page long letter. Lucky for him I killed him with depression and kindness, not hate... I didn't want to risk losing SR as a path to immortality...

Days pass, and Andrew Blank virtually posts nothing on his personal Twitter which was where I sent the private direct message to. Around 6 full days pass and FINALLY there was a response. "This message left me relatively speechless..." he says. He couldn't even comprehend that I was this hurt, depressed, and angry. He apologized and went on a small rant about him being isolated and struggling with self worth, like myself, which I couldn't buy.
