

I want to record and email goodbyes to certain people like James, Nelly, Rachel, Andrew Blank, Mallorca, Laura Faveaty, Hobo Deadfish, David (Superstarj487), Damian (make me bad 35), hell even Alicia (his ex-girlfriend). There's a lot to do but whatever is done by September 6th is done, that's it.

There's those DV tapes too... I dk, just so much stuff. It's just so hard to compress those 60 mm tapes into an uploadable file size. Just 15 mins can be like 1.5 GBs.

I'm rambling, I know. Whatever. The world will never be able to have or view everything that I have on my harddrives but I can at least release the essential stuff.

It's just surreal... In just over 5 months I'll be dead. Everyone who's known me will re-evaluate their perspectives on how they view me. Some will cry, some will be enraged and disgusted, some disappointed, others just in complete shock and disbelief.
