

People will see it as a tragedy but it'll set me free. Be happy for people who commit suicide; they're free from this putrid world. Life isn't meant for everyone. Accept it. We're all born different. You are free to do whatever you want with your life; you're in control. If they want you on medication for depression/suicidal thoughts, say "Fuck that!" Don't let a drug tell you how you "should feel"; you're not you if you rely on drugs.

If you want to end your life then just sit back and plan it out. Make sure it's full-proof, not something that will leave you alive and paralyzed. If you want to shoot yourself, put the gun barrel in your mouth NOT to the side of your head/temple. A shotgun is virtually full-proof; a pistol is pretty much 75/25 if you don't flinch after pulling the trigger. Sometimes you just gotta use what's around you. I'd leave hanging yourself as a last resort. That's a harsh and slow way to go.
