There are very few images that truly changed my direction in life like Ember and the Dazzlings have. I physically can't go more than 12 hours without looking at Ember. Her eyes, her body, they just pull me in like metal on a magnet. That image of her floating with her guitar, and evil ~~grin~~ grin changed my life forever.

The same goes for Sonata from the Dazzlings.

Well fuck...
I am outta
space... xx

Sorry baby...
you usually
look better than
that...
